THURSDAY MORN'G AUG. 21, 1851.

The second grand Concert and Soiree Dansante, by the Germania Murical Society, will take place this even ing at Ocean Hall. The season will roon be over now, and the visitors will not have many more opportunities to participate in these kind of gatherings, Knowing this, we suppose that all who like excellent music as well as those who are lotal of dancing, will improve the occasion. The town is now very full of visitors, and we anticipate seeing a brilliant audience assembled this eve

In The steamer Worcester will leave here about 10 o'clock this morning, on an excutsion to New London and Norwich; the American Brass Band, of Providence, will be on board, and this will afford an opportunity for dancing during the passage. The steamer will stop at Stonington, going and coming. and will remain over night at Norwich. She is an excellent sea-boat, and it will undoubtedly be a very pleasant excursicn. Passengers can remain on board at night. Fare, only one dollar for the excursion, including berth. The Worcester will return here tomorrow afternoon, about 4 o'clock.

A FAVORITE REMEDY .- We believe no medicine in the world has ever givon such astonishing proof of its efficacy as the Oxygenated Bitters. In cases of Dyspensia and General Debility, this medicine acts in the most agreeable manuer, restoring health and cheerfullness, when all other remedies have full_ ed. Pamphlets containing certificates of most remarkable cures, may be had gratuitously of the Agents. For sale by Druggists generally in the United States and Canadas.

35 Among the distinguished arrivals ni tswu, we notice Gen. George P. Morris, the Poet, and Marshal Tukey, of Boston.

氏字A fellow was engaged to a girl in Maine, but liked her sister better than he did her. Wishing to be off with the old love before he was on with the new he asked his betrothed what the would take to release him-she replied that about sixty two dollars she thought was as much as he was worth; whereupon he paid the cash, took a quit claim and married the sister.

There is a female now resident in Clark county, Georgia, who is one hundren and thirty-three years of age. She is quite lively and cheerfel-converses fluently, reads well without glasses .-She has fiving within one mile of her residence grand children to the sixth generation.

A certain young clergyman, modest almost to bashfulness, was once asked by a country apothecary of a contrary character, in a public and crowded assembly, and in a tone of voice to catch the attention of the whole company, "how it happened that the patriarchs lived to such an extreme old age? ---To which impertment question he im. mediately replied "perhaps they took no

THE NEXT EXPEDITION FOR LIBERIA. -The New York State Colonization Society have decided to send a verse to Liberia early in September. About forty persons have signified their wish to go out. The Sea Mew is daily expected from Africa, and on her arrival every exertion will be made to prepare her to return to Liberia. Donations of Proxing utensils, seeds, clothing, stationery, books, &c., will be gratefully reseived at the Colonization Office, Brick Church Chapel, in New York.

Providence, Aug. 20th, 1851. At the present writing our city is excessively dull. Of our forty five thousand people, all except forty thousand, are comewhere on the wing. Some have sought a quiet hermitage in the country, and some are down by the cool sea. Some are steaming upon the Atlautic, and lone are steaming to Niagara. Some are storming the Plains of Abraham, and some are scaling the White Mountains. Some are ratisfying themselves with a chilling excursion, and some are picking blackberries We know that not a few have inrelucly foregone the emisentent four pronged fouthelle, and Sheffield Knife, and painted China, and French couch, m the city, for an iron fork, a pewter spoon a trenciar, and a bedsinelling of dried herbs, in the country. Well, is amiable mood we must say that we are glad that all who could get away have gone co seek in one way or another their fill of health, happiness, refreshment, invigoration and satisfaction; to come back again prepared to join with a hearts good will in the performance of the duties which are allotted in every variety to each and all. The Summer Solstice will soon be over and man, like any other moth-and woman too-must flutter, and be gay and glad, while the sun thines with bright and genial ray. When we see, as we intely saw-and who happily or unhappily has not econ? —a friend bear a smiling bride away ourselves by an inexplicable fainlity condemned to a solitary state-though blessed with a temper naturally somewhat hopeful, yet in spite of our philosophy we are inclined to yield to a more than momentary despondency.-We knew a charming Laura oner,-a thing of witching beauty, with radient face, and form most fair to see. Laura where art thou now, with thy spirit bright and pure? Whether in fair Italy, or spicy Araby, or over the mountains amidet the wilds of Oregon, muttereth little to us, now since thou wilt not come at our bidding. But would that once again thou mightest bend the light of those dear eyes upon us!-

Would that once again we might dis-

port in the sunlight of thing angelic

surile? After the decade of days which we had allotted ourselves for 'our visit to yet there was no eye in the room sharp Newport had passed, and we were on our way to the boat we discovered lying in our path one of those smooth he had a crowd at his heels, and many dark tiny bowlders, of a beautiful oval form, which have been scattered profusely along the shores of your island,-As we took from the ground the pretty pebble and marvelled like a child at the perfection of harmony with which nature had rounded it, perhaps by the atpreserve it as a memorial of our visit.-By this stone we now declare or affirm —not swear—that this brief nojouing barring a slight indisposition - is to furnish in the remembrance, (we are always alledging something of this kind) one of the pleasantest episodes of our ex-eriences. It affords also a text for a brief homily about Newport. Perhaps it may not be our business to know anything about it before the trumpet is sounded, but we believe the day of your resurrection is at hand. With prophetic faith, and confident trust, we see Newport rising from her long steep and folfilling the bright promise of a century past. We see her mouldering wharves rebuilt; her roads within and without the town graded and widened, and last, though not least, the old nuisance of gates abolished. It may long lay lateat, but we know that the spirit of enterprise will yet break out amongst you. As we lately sailed around your heauthat harbor, with head full of splendid plans of improvement, we even built a magnificent wharf, from the shore on the south, to the Lime Rocks; those same rocks, with partions of their surface reduced, serving as a foundation for sidid Warehouses. We have the most absolute faith in steam factories. We believe they are already, and we hope they will continue to be, the peculiar institutions of the State. But we are so romantic-we know we shall not be pardoned-that we do not wish to see any more built in Newport. It is contrary to nature to have them there, and it is vain to strive against her. Besides there is room enough inland for all we shall mer need. Let not the hum of spindles mock the music of the Sea .--Our paper is full and we cannot say

We learn that the products of Massachusetts industry will be well represented at the exhibition of our eister State, and that Rhode Island artizans and manufacturers will be large contributors to the display of our Society. and we trust that such arrangement will be made by the different associations, with the railroad corporation, as will enable the inhabitants of the two cities to enjoy an interchange of civilities and hospitalities, by alternate visits to the exhibitions of each. Such an arrangement will and onbledly put money into the treasuries of both, and accomplish a still greater good, by creating a generous rivalry in all toture exhibitions, and cultivating that spirit of frateralty that ought to exist between all individuals and communities, whose pursuits and interests are identical with those of Rhode Island and Massachusetts .--Worcester Spy.

There was a splendid Paney Bal at Cape May on the night of the 2d! inst. Costly and unique dresses appeared, and the fushionable ladies were on hand in large numbers. In the N. Y. Herald report of the Ball we find the following:

Signor Biitz, the celebrated conjurer, was present, attired as a magician.-He were a long robe of black, trimmed with cards and bieroglyphic figures.— He carried in front a board, which answered for a platform on which to perform feats of magic. He was accompanied by a youngster, whom he termed his imp, and who carried the implementa by which the Signor was enabled to afford a vast deal of amusement. The bunches of the flowers that the magician called into meta-taneous existence, and presented to the young ladies might be counted by hundreds, and enough to see the source of all this floral wealth. Wherever the conjurer went side invitations were extended to him to amuse little knots of ladies, who were too modest to crowd around him while in the centre of the room. This was decidedly one of the leatures of the

A New Invention .- In a communication to the National Intelligencer of the ist inst., Mr. John Tyler, Jr., (son of the Ex-President,) announces that Dr. Wm. Richardson, of New Orleans, has invented a mode of substituting atmospheric air for steam in ocean navigation. He is not at liberty to divulge the means used, but says he feels perfeety justified in saying that it is destimed to be one of the most important in ventions that the world has ever witnessed. It is to do away with ficeemoke and filth, to occupy for less space, be perfectly safe, and cheaper then steam. Mr. Tyler claims this great invention as the fulfilment of a prophesy of his own.
